4 Matters Arising from the Minutes:

4.1 Woodville Entrance signs

A new sign has been erected at the western entrance to Woodville. Ian Bailey thanked S Emeny for her reporting of the meeting last month

4.2 Norsewear Conservation Awards

Friends of the Cemetery and Rotary Club are finalists in these awards and representatives will attend the Awards on 5th August 2004 in Norsewood

4.3 Woodlands Rd/Oxford Rd Intersection

A meeting was held on site with Roading Manager Trevor Bennett. LTSA will view and make recommendations to encourage traffic to divert down Woodlands Rd and into the town.

4.4 Microfiche

A Sowry reported that he has met with the District Librarian. Since then, he has purchased an older microfilm reader which he and his wife wish to donate to the community, it has not yet been decided where it will be situated.

Athol hopes that the community will sponsor rolls of film of the Woodville Examiner.

Appreciation and thanks was expressed to Athol & Betty Sowry for their kind donation of a Microfilm reader which will provide an invaluable historical record of the Woodville Examiner for student, residents and visitors.

REPORTS

7. Swimming Baths

Committee are meeting in September to discuss plans for the new season.
Awaiting contractors to start the new entrance

8. Lindauer Studio

47 paintings now available and 16 others ready to be produced.
Link progressing slowly as shortage of builders. May need another quote.

9. Skate park

Nothing new to report

10. Heartlands

Is now being used by Inland Revenue and Pahiatua Budget Service

GENERAL BUSINESS

11. Video camera Surveillance

There is a problem with the UPS in the radio station. At this stage, they do not have a costing for replacement. The equipment is being checked each day

12. Retailers

M Alding spoke on meetings that the retailers had been having since the flooding in February. They have lots of ideas to promote and enhance Woodville, the windmill theme is a priority and Meridian are providing posters which retailers have the opportunity to put in their windows.
The group are meeting again Tuesday 11th August at 5.30pm and welcome ideas. They will report back to Woodville Districts' Vision.
