Description of options

- Lawn burials

This section in a cemetery is for anyone who wishes to be buried.

- RSA section

Available to returned servicepersons and their spouses. These are designated areas for burials and ashes interments in some of our cemeteries.

- Columbarium wall

These walls are able to have ashes interred and then a plaque erected on the front of the niche.

- Memorial wall

Is for a memorial plaque to be placed only. There is no place for interment of ashes.

- Scattering ashes

This is a designated area where family can scatter the ashes of their loved ones.

- Ashes interment section

This is an area within the cemetery that is just for ashes interments. There can be up to two urns interred in an ashes plot.

Commonly asked questions

Can I scatter ashes in a public cemetery?

Yes you can, but only within the special areas provided.

Who looks after the headstones and memorials?

The upkeep of headstones and memorials is the responsibility of family.

Can I reserve a plot?

Yes, you can. The full cost of the plot must be paid in full at the time the plot is reserved.

Can we transfer a reserved plot(s) to other people or family if we no longer require them?

Yes, you can. The Council will need a letter from you stating who you are wanting the plot to go to and also your copy of the agreement will need to be returned and a new one created.

How many ashes can be interred in a burial plot?

Up to four ashes urns can be interred in a burial plot.

Can I choose a plot?

Yes, you can choose a plot in most cemeteries.

How many coffins can be buried in a single plot?

Up to two coffins can be buried in a single plot.

What do I need to do to put up a headstone or memorial?

A permit is required from Tararua District Council prior to the erection of any monument, memorial, headstone, foundation, or any other structure. The permit application is usually completed by the monumental mason.

Can we dig the grave?

No. Under current regulations, only Council staff are authorised to dig graves in any of our cemeteries.

Can we fill the grave?

In most cases this is possible but is cemetery dependant.

Can we hold a service on the weekend?

Yes, but it will incur after hours costs.

Can we bury a body without a coffin?

Interring a body without a coffin is not permitted.

Do you have a natural burial area?

No, we do not provide an area for natural burials. The nearest burial site to Tararua is the Clareville Natural Cemetery, in Carterton.

Can I bury my pet in the cemetery?

No, animals cannot be buried in our cemeteries.

Can I be buried in a plot owned by someone else?

Yes, you can, as long as we have a copy of their written permission.

Can I place ornaments and decorations on the headstone?

Yes, decorations placed on the concrete berm or headstone are permitted.

Can I place ornaments and decorations on the grave?

Temporarily, yes, fresh flowers, large flower arrangements and small decorations can be left on the soil of a new grave immediately after burial. Maintenance staff will remove these flowers and decorations once they begin to deteriorate.

Can I create a border or enclosure over the grave?

No, nothing permanent should be placed on the grave as it will hinder cemetery maintenance, become a hazard to other visitors and affect future burials.

Can I donate a tree or seat for placement in the cemetery?

Yes, Council will accommodate such requests providing all costs are met by the family.
